

Country Pleasure Horses (CP): To be judged on manners-performance-quality. No boots, no tail braces, no switches are allowed on any Country Pleasure horse. English or Western show tack and attire. Horses are to be flatshod, no bands allowed. Horses may enter the ring at a walk or country pleasure rack. Horses are to be ridden with a relatively loose single rein and should give the impression of going at ease with minimum control by the rider. The motion of a Country Pleasure horse is more than a TP horse, yet it should be less than a flatshod pleasure horse. Horses will be asked to stop on the rail during the class. Horses will walk to the line-up and will have to back a minimum of three steps in the lineup. Required gaits will be a walk and a country pleasure rack. Horses must stand quietly in the lineup.

Trail Pleasure Horses (TP): To be judged on manners-performance-quality. No boots, no tail braces, no switches are allowed on Trail Pleasure horses. Trail Pleasure horses are shown in western tack with optional breast collar and western attire only. Horses will be flatshod with manufactured keg shoes, no bands allowed. Horses may enter the ring at a walk or a trail pleasure rack. Horses are to be ridden with a relatively loose rein and should give the impression of going at complete ease with very minimum control by the rider. The Trail Pleasure horses gait will have a low lift that is valued for its comfort and ease. Horses will be asked to stop on the rail and stand quietly during the class. Horses will walk to the line-up and will have to back a minimum of three steps easily in the line-up. Required gaits will be a walk and a trail pleasure rack. Horses must stand quietly in the line-up.